Forth Replacement Crossing

The Queensferry Crossing's three main towers have been rapidly rising from the Forth. A bird's eye view from the crane earlier this year revealed the construction team pouring concrete into a lattice of steel reinforcement. The towers will eventually be more than 200m high, tapering gracefully like a needle to the sky. The skilled workforce carries on 24/7, battling all weathers.

That's another busy summer over! A highlight was whistling and waving as a "Clydesider" at the Glasgow Commonwealth Games for the triathlon, marathon and cycling. Stress from preventing the crowds from being annihilated by motorbikes, team cars and the peloton in torrential rain outside busy Queen Street Station saw me lock up no less than four bank cards while trying to buy a souvenir - a wee Clyde mascot. The best souvenirs, are, of course, PHOTOGRAPHS!

Family photography

With the approach of Christmas - now is the time to get around to that family portrait, or at least your little folk before they grow up. Indoors in our state-of-the-art photographic studio, or outdoors, or both!

If you need a present I can provide a gift voucher for any value.

I have a special offer for Christmas 2014 - a photoshoot and framed 10"x8" image for £100.

Scottish Enterprise

In spite of a very wet and dull May 2014 I managed to capture a surprising number of blue skies behind some of Scotland's famous buildings: old and new. Scottish Enterprise required tourism images so I set off to photograph Aberdeen, Glasgow, Dundee, Inverness, St Andrews, Perth, Stirling, Inverness and Edinburgh.

Happy 50th Birthday

The 50th Birthday of the Forth Road Bridge was celebrated with a spectacular firework display on a Saturday evening in September. The first rocket exploded at precisely 10:06pm in recognition of the 1006m main span. Smoke from the pyrotechnics soon obscured the bridge from my high perch on the new bridge.

Meadowlark Yoga

I have enjoyed photographing the talented yoga teachers at Meadowlark Yoga, in my photographic studio and in their aerial yoga studio, where they perform the yoga postures suspended by silk hammocks. They teach addictive classes to suit all levels of flexibility.

I spend spare work time submitting images to stock libraries Getty and Photoshot. There's no point having zillions of images in hard drives when they could be enjoyed by others and bring in some cash. This pic of Stirling Castle is a popular one. More of my images can be viewed:

Kingdom Housing

I photograph Kingdom Housing Association each year for the annual report. I always look forward to photoshoots on buildingsites and on finished housing projects - especially where there are children and playgrounds involved. www.kingdomhousing.org.uk

Loanhead Children's Gala Day

The highlight of the summer for families in Loanhead, Midlothian, is the Children's Gala Day. A Loanhead schoolgirl is crowned Gala Queen at the end of a week of festivities. Houses are decorated and pipe bands, ex-miners and schoolchildren parade down the streets to the Crowning Ceremony.
